

The consideration is $3000.00. Do you think that the sum of $3000.00 is a fair price for the property?

I do.

Do you think it would be to the best interest and advantage of the owners of the property to sell the property at this time at that price?

Yes.

I hand you paper writing marked Exhibit No. 2. Will you tell the Court what that is?

That is the contract of sale on the property that we are selling for Mrs. Stroup to Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker.

Do you know this property?

Yes.

Will you describe what it is?

There is a six-room house without any modern conveniences, no heat, no bath, lights or water, facing on the highway below Feagaville on the right hand side, consists of nine and three-quarters acres, which has grown up considerably in locust and has cleared below the house for a garden, and the balance is in need of being cultivated. There is some little timber on it. The property is in fair condition, the front porch needs considerable repairs and attention. There was a garage but it burned down and they have a shed and poultry house.

TO THE GENERAL INTERROGATORY:

Nothing more.
